The cost of the weekend is still only $450. This includes the cost of the room for three nights, the meals and the entertainment.

Here's a few reasons to attend:

- Cost of the weekend always includes room and board. This means a place to plop your weary body for the weekend, a weenie roast on Thursday night, all meals (that three-square a day thing) afterward, ending with the farewell lunch on Sunday. So your registration fee covers almost everything -- no hotel charges, no bloated Visa bills from trying to feed your face all weekend!
- Membership is limited to 200 and the atmosphere is informal, which gives you a chance to actually chat with people every year. Everyone feels at home here. And God knows, people act like it.
- The Friday night Artists Reception and Meet The Authors signing. Also, FRIDAY NIGHT IS NOW HAWAIIAN SHIRT NIGHT. There will be a Hawaiian shirt contest judged by Necon Luminaries. Valuable prizes will be awarded for the best (or worst) shirt.
- Weird and twisted movies in the lounge both Friday and Saturday nights.
- Most years you'll get a chance to attend another fine Necon tradition: That Damned Game Show!, usurped only occasionally by the stunning Necon Talent Show.
- The 12th annual Necon Olympics. Events include Miniature Golf, Darts, Croquet, Hi-Lo-Jack and others.
- Panels, GOH readings and interviews, regularly scheduled food cooked for you, the yearly softball game, and oh my god the all-night parties that go on! And on! And on some more!
- The fabled Necon Roast, where some poor schmuck... er, personality is chosen and, shall we say, lavished with loving attention.
- The people - everyone is always friendly, always approachable, and always a world of fun! • There aren't a whole bunch of rules other than we are not a costume convention and no children are admitted.

PRICE: Price is $100 for a membership. This will secure your spot. It will allow you in all four days as a walk-in. If you would like to stay on campus add $350 for room and board. Meals are not included with walk-in memberships.
